

Now Accepting Nominations
for the
Alaska Quality Seafood
Best Practices and Innovations
In Seafood Award

Alaska Quality Seafood is awarding the Best Practices and Innovations in Seafood Award to someone who has proved excellence is within reach. The purpose of the award is to recognize individuals, companies, associations, and/ or communities that are serving as leaders in this industry. It is an opportunity to nominate a person or company you feel has gone above and beyond in the seafood industry.

The nominees can be harvesters, processors, carriers, technology manufactures, consultants, fishermen, distributors, retailers, wholesalers, services, associations, educators, etc. You are free to nominate yourself.

The semi-finalists will be featured in an issue of the Alaska Journal of Commerce, and the winner receives a trophy as well as another biography in the AK Journal.

This prestigious award will be presented at this year's Global Food Alaska 2007 Conference and Trade Show in Soldotna, AK on June 13th.

Nominating is easy. Just visit our web site at www.alaskaqualityseafood.com and follow the link at the bottom of the page. You can email, fax or fill out an online version of the form. We are accepting awards through March 31st, 2007.

Please call Alaska Quality Seafood at 907-565-5655 or email Rebecca@alaskaqualityseafood.com if you have any questions.
